The Preface.

THE Parish Church of Eccleston dedicated to St. Mary, is about four miles due west of Chorley. It is situate rather at the northern extremity of its parish which comprises the townships of Eccleston, Heskin, Wrightington, and Parbold—an area of about 8,600 statute acres. The adjacent parishes are Leyland, Croston, Ormskirk, Wigan, and Standish. The Parish Registers unfortunately do not begin earlier than 1603, and the whole of the earliest volume is here printed.

The original consists of 40 leaves of parchment 22in. long by 10in. wide bound in a modern binding. It is a well preserved volume but will soon become illegible from the ravages of time.

The Episcopal Transcripts at Chester have been carefully examined for the period represented by this volume and much additional information has, as a result, been embodied herein.

The thanks of the Society are due to the Rev. H. W. Bretherton, M.A., Rector of Eccleston, for giving facilities for printing the Register, and to Mr. Price of the Chester Diocesan Registry for his unfailing courtesy. The Society's special gratitude is due to Miss Joan Peacock, of Biddenham, Bedfordshire, who, though not even a member of the Society, has so kindly compiled the Index.

Indexes.

I.

Christian Names and Surnames.

Christenings	pp. 1—48 inclusive.
Burials	„ 49—98 „
Marriages	„ 99—112 „

Where a name has variants the Head-name has been selected which now exists or which most closely resembles the modern equivalent. All variants are separately Indexed with cross references to the Head-name.

Where a Surname has an alias each form of the Surname is Indexed under its initial letter.

The Christian names are, with some few exceptions, Indexed under their modern form—the first spelling of the name having generally been continued in connection with the same Surname.

Illegitimate children are Indexed under the Surnames of both Mother and putative Father.

“N.X.N.” signifies “No Christian Name.”

An Asterisk following a page number signifies that that combination of Christian and Surname occurs more than once on the page number asterisked.
